

FOUND GUILTY.*Church Trial Ends in Defeat of John Hausam.

Thursday's Sedalia Capital.

The Rev. John Hausam, who has been on trial before the dignitaries of the German Methodist church for several days past, was last night found guilty of disloyalty to the church by the gentlemen who had heard the evidence.

To the lay mind the offense of the Rev. Mr. Hausam is not clear, but it is stated in a general way that he has been the cause of disagreements in the congregation in more ways than one, but that he, specifically, advocated the use of the English language at one service each Sunday, and insisted that it be used.

John Hausam was for years in the grocery business here. He has been always a worker, earning his bread by his labor. Sundays he has gone into the country districts to supply pulpits where no regular minister was employed, and generally he has been regarded as a rugged Christian gentleman.

Four years ago he was the Republican candidate for treasurer of Pettis county and made a canvass that largely increased his list of personal friends. Since quitting the grocery business he has been engaged in the cultivation of small fruits, and has diligently applied himself to earning a living, giving his time to the work of the church freely.

His friends outside of the church cannot understand that he is anything but a good man, and the verdict of the church court will not be accepted as reflecting in any manner upon his personal character.

Reinstated

Through the efforts of Chas. M. Hawley, Atty., James W. Dike, who was a private in Co. F 6th Regiment of Kentucky Volunteers Infantry, has just received from the commissioner of pensions, pension certificate No. 617106, entitling him under the act of June 27, 1890, to six dollars per month from March 27, 1899, on account of partial inability to earn a support by manual labor. This party had heretofore been receiving a pension, but from some unknown cause it was stopped.

Strodman-Johnson.

Mr. Otto Strodman, of Little Rock, and Miss Viola Johnson of Gilliam, were married in this city Wednesday, October 23d, in the pastor's study at the Baptist church by Rev. J. F. Kemper.
